Dear

I am writing in response to your email dated 23rd July 2020 Received into our office 24th July) requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) regarding Well led audit

On our acknowledgment we added the following statement:

The University Hospitals of North Midlands Trust is committed to the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

However, the NHS is facing unprecedented challenges relating to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic at the current time. Understandably, our resources have been diverted to support our front-line colleagues who are working tremendously hard to provide care for our patients, and to those in need of our services.

We strive to be transparent and to work with an open culture. But at this time, whilst care of our patients and the safety of our staff takes precedent, it is likely that responses to some requests for information will be delayed. We apologise for this position in advance, and will endeavour to provide you with as much information as we can, as soon as we are able.

The Information Commissioners Office has recognised the current situation in the NHS.

As of 1st November 2014 University Hospitals of North Midlands NHS Trust (UHNM) manages two hospital sites – Royal Stoke University Hospital, and County Hospital (Stafford). Therefore the response below is for the two sites combined from that date where appropriate.

Q1 My name is [REDACTED], I work for the [REDACTED], a healthcare consultancy/training company, I would like to put in in place a freedom of information request to this Trust regarding your last external well led review, could you tell me:

- When it happened (MM/YY)
- Who was commissioned to undertake it
- Finally what was the cost of it?

A1 Please see below:

- Commissioned April 2019
- Our regulators at NHSIE as a supportive developmental review
- No cost
