Dear

I am writing in response to your email dated 17th February 2020 requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) regarding coding.

On the same day we contacted you via email as we required clarification on what you meant by: Lateral release and proximal realignment?

On 10th April 2020 (received into our office 14th April 2020)

“Apologies for the delayed response. Lateral release refers to the release of the lateral patellofemoral retinaculum and proximal realignment refers to addressing the distal femur to alter the biomechanics of the patellofemoral joint.

If this remains unclear and you are unable to retrieve the relevant codes I would be grateful for the codes that apply to the other procedures listed which did not require clarification.

I appreciate there may now be a delay due to the current circumstances”

On 14th April 2020 we acknowledged your clarification with the following:

The University Hospitals of North Midlands Trust is committed to the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

However, the NHS is facing unprecedented challenges relating to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic at the current time. Understandably, our resources have been diverted to support our front-line colleagues who are working tremendously hard to provide care for our patients, and to those in need of our services.

We strive to be transparent and to work with an open culture. But at this time, whilst care of our patients and the safety of our staff takes precedent, it is likely that responses to some requests for information will be delayed. We apologise for this position in advance, and will endeavour to provide you with as much information as we can, as soon as we are able.

The Information Commissioners Office has recognised the current situation in the NHS.
