Let's Remember Together

Words of Welcome - Rev Christine Wright

Poem - Her Eyes Tell, written by Clive Sanders, a war veteran and read by Tracy Bullock Chief Executive, UHNM

St Chad's children share their poem, written to help us remember

Hymn – All

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Beneath the shadow of thy throne,
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.
A thousand ages in thy sight,
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

Act of Remembrance

Live stream RSUH led by Rev Christine Wright

Live stream County led by Fr Michael PuljicVlahic

Let us remember before God,
and commend to his sure keeping:
those who have died for their country in conflict;

those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;
and all who have lived and died in the service of humanity.

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

All - We will remember them.
