Dear

I am writing to acknowledge receipt of your email dated 23rd January 2023 requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) regarding Sodexo

As of 1st November 2014 University Hospitals of North Midlands NHS Trust (UHNM) manages two hospital sites – Royal Stoke University Hospital, and County Hospital (Stafford). Therefore the response below is for the two sites combined from that date where appropriate.

Q1 I am an outpatient at the hospital and attended an appointment on 20 January 2023. Due to the nature of my treatment, I am required to stay in hospital for approximately 6 hours at a time. During my stay yesterday, I was offered a sandwich box from nursing staff, which I declined, however this led to a discussion with other patients. I understand that a typical sandwich box costs the service in the region of £27.00. I believe the typical contents of the box are a pre-packed sandwich, small juice, yoghurt and potentially a bag of crisps or biscuit.

This is provided by your catering provider Sodexo. Under this FOI request, I would like a response on the following:

- What is the justification for Sodexo to charge such an amount for a sandwich box, in which the constituent parts could be purchased for less than £5.00?

A1 We are unsure as to where the cost of £27.00 per snack box request has been obtained from, but can confirm that Snack Boxes cost the Trust less than £2.50 per request, which contain a sandwich, juice cup drink, yoghurt and either crisps or biscuits.

Q2 What procurement exercise took place by the Trust to agree for a figure of £27.00 to be charged?

The financial challenges that the NHS are currently facing are very well publicised. The care I have received since becoming an outpatient at the hospital last year has been exemplary, however it seems to be a blatant profiteering from the private catering provider.

A2 The catering services are not part of a procurement exercise as all additional costs associated with the provision of patient catering are part of a contract for the provision of catering services at the Royal Stoke site. The Trust regularly compares data from similar size Trusts to ensure that costs associated with these services is comparable.
